

THE CANADA EMERGENCY WAGE SUBSIDY CAN WORK FOR YOU

Get the support you need to bring your employees back to work.

Helping your business get back on track

Subsidy rates apply to remuneration of up to $1,129 per week per eligible employee. The rates below are in effect for Period 5 (July 5 – August 1) and Period 6 (August 2 – August 29). Over time, the subsidy rate will be gradually reduced from 60% to 20% in Period 9 (October 25 – November 21).

The CEWS can fit your situation

You can get a subsidy for each of your eligible employees. The amount you get per employee is based on your revenue drop.*

How much can you qualify for?

	REVENUE DROP 50% and more	REVENUE DROP 0-49%
BASE RATE	60% or up to $677/week per employee	Your revenue drop % x 1.2 (eg. 20% x 1.2 = 24% base rate or $271/week per employee)

Do you qualify for a top-up?

Were you hard-hit?

If you've been especially hard-hit by the COVID-19 crisis, you may get an additional top-up subsidy, based on your revenue drop.*

	REVENUE DROP 70% or more	REVENUE DROP 50%-69%	REVENUE DROP 0-49%
TOP UP	25% or up to $282/week per employee	1.25 x (your revenue drop % - 50%) (eg. 1.25 x (60% - 50%) = 12.5% or $141/week per employee)	No top-up

*There are two ways to calculate your revenue drop. You can choose the one that works best for your situation.
